We took our chances. Our time was a time when tradition had to be overcome. With situations that upset the previous order, it was necessary for us to find new solutions to these new problems. Certainly, we had to ignore "the way things have always been." Indeed, the challenges that we faced did force us to take new and original steps. We may take pride in the fact that our troubles were not met with indifference but with a strength of character. Furthermore, our success against our problems is proof that the only way to solve those situations was to take our chances.

We take our chances. Daily, each of us takes steps which may directly affect our future. Making decisions and acting on those decisions is basically a simple definition of "taking our chances." Furthermore, if we perform these two tasks, all of us have the power to succeed. The final decision is ours; we can succeed in life only if we make these attempts.

We must take our chances. The future is only the after effect of decisions and actions that occur in the present. Thus, we constantly must choose our path and direct our attention to these after effects of present chances. In order to bring variety to our lives, we must try those things which will bring more interest and more meaning. One final message: we must never close our eyes to the chances that will eventually initiate our future.

A RESPECTABLE 12-4-3 SEASON

Although the Lions finished with a 12-4-3 record and a play-off appearance, there seemed to be something missing from the season this year, because in many peoples eyes the Lions are supposed to have a winning record and make the play-offs every year. This is a great compliment to Ludlow soccer and its participants. Nonetheless, there were many exciting moments for the Lions this year. Perhaps the biggest highlight came when the Lions thoroughly outplayed undefeated Cathedral in a 0-0 tie. Ludlow owned Cathedral this day and proved that they could play with anyone in Western Mass. When Ludlow's bid for second place fell short on the final game of the season, the Lions optimistically looked forward to their challenge against eventual state runner-up, Classical. With Ludlow jumping to the early 1-0 lead, things looked promising. Then, shortly before the end of the half, the Lions surrendered 2 goals and never recovered. This was by far Classical's biggest scare in the Western Mass. tournament, thus earning more respect for this fine Ludlow Lions' soccer team. Western Mass. honors were earned by senior co-capt. Mike Rodrigues, senior Joe Ferrera, and all-league honors were earned by Armando Eugenio.

WELL DONE LADY LIONS

Even though this season marked only the second year that the girls' varsity soccer team was competing in the tougher "A" division, they had an outstanding season. Their over-all record was 12-2-3, leaving them in second place. This finish was not at all unexpected: as Coach Dalessio said in the early weeks of the season, "I think that they are capable of coming in first or second place, it would take a major collapse in order for it not to happen."

Throughout the entire season, the strong effort put forth by the Lady Lions helped them capture their best record in 10 years. No where was this more evident than in their four consecutive shutouts against Minnechaug, 1-0; Holyoke, 1-0; Northampton, 4-0; and Chicopee Comp, 7-0. This type of play allowed them to defeat West Springfield 3-2 in order to gain the Western Mass. championship all before falling to Marlborough by a score of 1-0 in the Central Mass. tournament.

Providing leadership for the team were senior tri-captains Jody Davignon, Patty Skowronek, and Luanne Varao. The offensive strike was lead by junior Pam Socha, who finished the season with twelve goals and six assists for a total of 10 points. Goalie Sue Jerz was given the MVP award for her tremendous school record of eight shut-outs in net; meanwhile, senior Patty Skowronek was voted tournament MVP. Best offensive player was awarded to Stephanie Mercier, and Best Defensive was Pam Socha. Senior Jody Davignon received the Coaches Award.

Phil Dalessio returned as head coach with Jake Socha lending some extra assistance. Congratulations to Coach Dalessio and the Lady Lions for an outstanding season.

DRIVE, DEDICATION, AND TALENT

When asked about the 1985 football Lions, an optimist might say, "Well, at least none of our players were injured in the playoffs." Of course, with a 1-8 record there was little danger of that happening. All joking aside, the season was less than expected, but there were many bright spots that served to make it an enjoyable learning experience for everyone involved.

"The record was disappointing," said senior captain Phil McBride when asked about the team, "but I had a lot of fun, and I wouldn't think twice about playing with the same bunch of guys," calling his teammates "great." And how could anyone think anything but highly of a team with the nucleus of seniors that included such dedicated players as Don Tatro, Steve Rohan, Ralph Potter, Chris Brunelle, Rich Hafner, Chip Harrington, Enoch Monts, Sean Seslar, Ron St. Peter, and Greg Liaszenik. Their conduct made it difficult to criticize the team despite its poor performance.

The annual Thanksgiving day game with Palmer, which was played under a freezing torrential downpour at Chick Patullo Memorial Field, epitomized the Lions' season. Their drive, dedication, and talent were all apparent, but they came up just short.

DETERMINATION AGAINST INEXPERIENCE

"Despite our winless record, the team displayed a lot of determination and desire which aided each runner to improve his/her personal time over the course of the season," said Coach "Spike" Clancy. Although the squad often had to face teams three times their size in numbers these dedicated runners gave it their all each meet. With every member of the team returning, except senior Tony Senecal, Coach Clancy foresees a brighter future for Ludlow's cross country program. There is a distinct possibility that the 1986 team will win at least half of their meets.

The brightest points of the 1985 season included performances by the only veteran, junior Tung Bui. Tung was undefeated on the Ludlow course with times of 15'30", 14'58", 14'56", and 15'04". He was also impressive at the Western Massachusetts Championships with an overall finish of 25th.

Ludlow, as a team, placed 14th at the Western Mass. Championships. Perhaps the position does not show it, but the runners of the eighty-five season should be credited for their courage to overcome their small numbers and inexperience.

FREE ONLY TO FRESHMAN?

On September 6, 1985, the Freshman class was welcomed by the Juniors with the annual Junior-Freshman dance in the cafeteria. The dance was attended by approximately forty Juniors and sixty Freshmen. Among the freshmen were "Sonny Crockett" himself, Chad Marshall, who entertained many throughout the night with his Miami Vice collection of clothing, and Herb Zimmerman, who danced the night away.

Music was provided by student D.J.'s Scott Robbins, and Scott Duquette. Refreshments, to the surprise of juniors Chris DeGregory and Craig Weeks, were, as they said, "free only to the freshmen?!" The dance was organized by Sean Kenneally, Sharon Covington, and Junior Class President, Maryanne Abeid.

VICTORY '85

October 4, 1985 was the date of the annual fall Booster Day pep rally. The L.H.S. cheerleaders, led by captain Sue Shatzer, and co-captains Krystal Applebee and Lynn Evans, got the students "psyched." Students enjoyed dances, cheers, and the antics of "The Ludicrous Lions," who performed their "ding-dong" cheer and several other unusual feats. Fall athletes were introduced and applauded by the crowd. The girls' soccer team gave their rendition of the cheerleaders' pyramid amid much uproar from the crowd.

That night, the Senior Class hosted the Booster Day Dance, entitled "Victory 85." Entertainment was provided by Jane Welsch and Neil Jackson of 96 WTIC FM. Once again many junior and senior boys performed what they call "the worm dance" to Otis Day's Version of "Shout."

FROM BUNNIES TO DICE

What was Marilyn Monroe doing in the Ludlow High School cafeteria? Well, Marilyn portrayed by senior Carrie Marceau, was joined by many other characters ranging from Playboy bunnies to a pair of dice (Christine Andreis and Kathy Melbourne). The event was the Halloween Masquerade Party sponsored by THE CUB on November 1, 1985. Mike White and other student D.J.'s Steve Picard and Mike Abeid "hooked 'em up" with some music as they played songs from such diverse groups as Motley Crue and the Talking Heads. During the dance, Brian Dygon took pictures of those who were willing to make a small contribution to THE CUB. In another corner of the cafeteria, Mrs. Mazzocco, Mrs. Bacon, and Mrs. Lyons chose the students with the best costumes in a variety of categories. The evening came to a close when junior Cindy Lyons presented the costume awards and the last slow song was played.

OVERLOOKED BUT OUTSTANDING

Often overlooked but very vital to the L.H.S. athletic community are the cheerleaders. Once again the 1986 cheerleaders proved to be outstanding: Captain Sue Shatzer along with advisor Mrs. Tierney helped the varsity squad learn difficult dance and acrobatic routines.

Besides cheering regularly at varsity boys' football, soccer, and basketball games the squad cheered on the Varsity girls' soccer team to the Western Mass. championship. Girls' soccer coach Phil Dalessio presented the cheerleaders with a special award for their efforts. The cheerleaders also presented two very memorable pep rallies. The annual Booster Day rally was held in the fall, while the squad later presented a rally for winter sport athletes. This year senior Faith Fredette and Julie Shatzer took turns as the L.H.S. lion.

SKI TEAM

This year's ski team did very well finishing in fourth place in seven out of eight meets, and it also managed to place third in one meet.

Coach Matt Conet will be graduating 6 out of his 8 team members this year. The loss of senior Scott Tierney, who managed to make the C-division all star team, will be especially hard on next year's team. Congratulations to coach Conet and his team on a fine season.

WEIGHT 'TIL NEXT YEAR

A lack of participation plagued the 1985-86 Ludlow High wrestling team. There were only 9 wrestlers on the team, making it virtually impossible for the team to win a meet. Despite this fact, there were many bright spots, most notably the performances of senior captain Paul Kirkitelos. Paul was 11-2 with 9 pins in the regular season, ranking him second in Western Mass. for the 132 pound weight class. He placed fourth in the state tournament. This was the culmination of an excellent high school career for Paul.

There were other quality underclassmen wrestlers on the team who performed well above average during the season, including Lance Holman, who enjoyed an outstanding season until it was abruptly ended when he broke his thumb. Lance was seeded second in the Western Mass. tournament at the 170 pound mark. Regardless of these setbacks, coaches Dale and Craig McCarl remained devoted towards the goal of keeping the Ludlow High wrestling program alive.

WESTERN MASS. CHAMPS

The Ludlow High School varsity hockey team was crowned as a co-champion of the Fay-Wright Division along with Amherst Regional High for the second year in a row. The Lions capped a brilliant season with Lou Tulik's spectacular overtime goal against Putnam for the Western Mass. championship. Thus, the team earned a trip to the state semi-finals against Minuteman Vocational of Lexington. Overall, the Lion pucksters enjoyed a 15 win - 5 loss record for the season.

During the 1985-86 campaign the Lions had their ups and downs, but were able to put it all together when it was necessary. The Lions played their best when they were up against the tougher teams of their division. For example, they beat their arch-rival Amherst by the scores of 3-0 and 5-2 during the season, and finally 6-2 in the Western Mass. playoffs.

One of the many reasons the Lions were so successful during the season was that they were the only team with two solid, experienced lines. These two lines, consisting solely of seniors, gave the Lions a potent and balanced scoring threat. Ludlow's leading scorer, captain Mike Rodrigues, along with forwards Craig Falconer, Jim Chouinard, Jim Nowakowski, Lou Tulik, and Bob Hughes helped make the Lions a strong goal-scoring team. The Lions also gave up the second fewest goals in their division. Large credit for this is due to senior defensemen Chris Currier and Steve Picard. Jeff Steigmeyer, and Scott Duquette, two of the season's finest goalies, also contributed largely to the team's success.

HOOP HEROICS

Putting a complete game together was the Lion's greatest obstacle. Ludlow's games were filled with quality play, but carelessness and mental fatigue put points between Coach Kolodziej's boys and the opponent. Kris Erickson was a key contributor to the Lion's cause, coming off the bench and creating much needed offense. Also, Ludlow's potential packed Enoch Monts suffered from a lack of consistency. However, when he came to play, Monts natural quickness and superior strength cut an awesome figure on the court.

Furthermore, Dan Sweeney contributed an average of twelve points and eight rebounds a game. Also, the 85-86 season provided a testing ground for the budding Joe Crowley. This smooth sophomore played with the poise of a senior. Ralph Potter, the fourth senior member of the squad, constantly showed his determination and effort throughout the entire season. However these hoop heroics were hampered by inconsistency which often was the main reason for Ludlow's losses. Although the Lions only had four seniors on the 85-86 team, the squad was quite competitive with the Hampshire County League.

TOUGH DEFENSE, QUICK OFFENSE

Although the Lady Lions' basketball team did not do as well as predicted, they managed to finish the season with a very respectable 8-10 record. Showing tough defense with a surprisingly quick offense, the Lady Lions battled against such traditional rivals as: Palmer, Ware, and Putnam. Co-captains, Sue Jerz and Pam Socha provided the team with the leadership both on and off the court which was necessary to capture some major victories.

Pam Socha was named as this year's M.V.P. after leading the team in scoring, including an outstanding 25 point game against Putnam to end the season. Following Pam in scoring was Sue Jerz. Also helping out on offense was sophomore Kathy Melbourne who led the team in assists and steals. Meanwhile on defense, Lisa Martin proved to be tough on the boards leading the team with rebounds. She also earned the team's most improved player award.

Third year coach Len Phelon did a remarkable job rebuilding the team after graduating seven players last year. Since coach Phelon graduated only one senior, Debbie Riordan, this year, the girls' basketball team looks to be very promising for next year's season.

TOTAL: 140 PINTS!

On December 13, 1985 Pro Merito sponsored its winter bloodmobile under the direction of Marguerite Wrona. Seniors came down to the gymnasium during their free blocks to donate. Because of their support, 65 pints of blood was collected. On April 4, 1986 the Red Cross blood-mobile once again visited Ludlow High School. This time it was for the spring bloodmobile and co-chaired by Marguerite Wrona and Lynn Evans. Due to the time and effort donated by all those involved, the drive was a great success, collecting 75 pints of blood.

SLAVERY RETURNS?

The first annual Slave Day auction took place on Wednesday, December 4, 1985. This was the time when students "purchased" other students to be their slaves on December 6, 1985. David Rickson, Chip Harrington, and Don Tatro were just a few of the top dollar bids. JCL president, Sean Kennealy, was auctioned for $5.50. Lance Holman took in the highest bid of the day, $25.00, to Shelly Strader. The slaves were made to dress up, sing songs, carry lunches, books, and anything else that their masters ordered. The day was, to say the least, interesting for all who witnessed it.

SENIORS GET READY FOR SANTA!

On December 20, 1985, the class of 1986 held its Senior Christmas Banquet. The setting for the festivities was Tony & Penny's Restaurant in town. The night included dinner, which consisted of roast beef, potatoes, and an endless amount of chicken and rice; dancing, with music provided by professional d.j.'s; and as a special bonus, an array of door prizes. Towards the end of the night, the seniors gathered in a circle, holding hands, to say a special good-bye to classmate Don Tatro, who would be moving out of state. The snow that was falling added a sense of seasonal bliss to the evening; an evening which helped the seniors kick off a feeling of class unity which would last throughout the year.

ROPES RAISE MONEY

On February 7, many students at Ludlow High School participated in a "Jump Rope For Heart" to benefit the American Heart Association. When all the pledges came in and were finally tallied, a record $2,166.90 was collected. An activity such as this creates enthusiasm among the students and provides a low investment, high return extracurricular activity. There were approximately 175 students jumping for the three hour duration in both gymnasiums. The chairperson for this event was Karen Willard and Faith Ferdette; and with the help of the Ludlow Burger King who donated the cups and drinks, the event was a large success. It is hoped that this will continue to be an annual event at Ludlow High School sponsored and promoted by the Student Council.

A BREAK FROM ROUTINE

The L.H.S. cheerleaders began the new year on January 4, 1986 with a pep assembly. As usual, the assembly was for students a break from the daily routine and a chance to get rowdy! The rally introduced the students to their winter athletes and gave them an incentive to cheer on players during the season.

That evening, the cheerleaders also hosted an Hawaiian Dance. Those attending broke up the routine of winter by dressing up in their exotic summer clothes. Music was provided by student D.J.'s, and for all of those people who dared to "Hula," the evening was a great deal of fun.

SOPHOMORES GO TO "HEAVEN"

The class of 1988 held the annual Sophomore banquet, entitled "Heaven", on the evening of February 28, 1986. The setting was the new Homestead Restaurant in Ludlow. Students danced all night to the sounds of a professional disc jockey. The evening was organized by Sophomore class president Joe Crowley, along with class advisors Mr. Phelon,

Mr. Carlin, and Mr. Burrage. Sophomores decorated the Homestead to suit their theme. After a prime rib or chicken dinner, students as well as advisors expressed a great deal of excitement while dancing to 50's music. Besides the students and the advisors, Mr. and Mrs. Cavallo and Mr. and Mrs. Andreis enjoyed the activity of the cold winter night.

SENIORS GO CHINESE

On March 20, 1986, the Senior Class came together for a party at the Mandarin restaurant in Springfield. President Michele Manganaro said that the intent of her and her Senior executive board was to "give the Class of 1986 a night out and a night to remember." The evening began with an all-you-can-eat Chinese buffet.

Next, there were three hours of dancing with music provided by d.j. Tony Mole'. When Tony said "Let's do the hoky-poky", most of the seniors danced to that kindergarten favorite. The night ended with a group dance to Frank Sinatra's "New York, New York."

FREE FARE!!!

On March 10, 1986 the students of L.H.S. were lucky enough to rock to the sounds of "Free Fare," a five man band whose ages ranged from 19-24. The band tours the east coast to spread the word to kids that "being yourself is really where it's at." Free Fare aroused a lot of audience participation when they made their own "movie" on stage. No one will ever forget Mr. Duclos as C-3PO or Mrs. Kavka jamming to "Bang Your Head." The music was mostly top 40, with hits by Mr. Mister, Corey Hart, and Quiet Riot. That night they put on another concert at the school.

DAVE'S TENNIS

The 1986 tennis team had a rough season finishing off the year with a 1-9 record. However, team members gained tremendous knowledge under the leadership of Coach "Dave". With no team captains, "Dave" had to provide all the leadership. This year's team moved up to Division I from Division III because there were no slots remaining open in the later division. This, combined with the teams general inexperience, account for their record. Bright spots on this year's team including Tim Lussier who was perhaps the hardest hitting player on the team. Chris Laramie attempted to induce team spirit. With gained experience the team hopes to have a productive season next year.

LIONS' TRACK

Although the 1986 track team did not win a meet, it would be unfair to blame Coach Budlong or any member of this team for the lack of success. For the most part, this was a team which performed as well as many other schools in the area. The difference was that the turn out for Ludlow track was generally much less than that for other schools. Furthermore, Ludlow track was at a grave disadvantage because it did not have the proper facilities for the development of the track program. First year coach Dan Budlong did as much as possible to combat these problems.

The year's main contributors were all underclassmen. Junior Jim Parker performed well enough to qualify for the Western Mass. and State tournaments. Jim's main events were the triple jump and the 100 meter. Tung Bui also did well in the Western Mass. tournament, where he competed in the triple jump and the 440 meter. Another bright spot for the Lions was the foursome of Bui, Parker, Crowley, and LaRose. These four underclassmen finished sixth in the relay at the Western Mass. tournament.

LUDLOW LINKSTERS

The 1986 golf team finished 7 and 7 for the year, but the linksters were hoping for even greater things. They were a senior-laden team with plenty of experience. The top golfers were Bob Hughes and Paul Kirkitelos who alternated at the number one position. Dave Condon and Scott Tierney were the other two seniors who led the Lions charge. Sophomores Mark Parsons, Bob Carnevale, and Steve Cieplek rounded out the varsity lineup. The potential of this team was shown when the golfers topped previously unbeaten, and eventual Valley Wheel champion South Hadley. A victory over tournament bound East Longmeadow also made it obvious just what might have been if the Ludlow golfers could have pulled together. Regardless of this overall disappointment, the team qualified four players for the Western Mass. individual tournament in Williamstown; Hughes, Kirkitelos, Condon, and Parsons. Mr. Holdsworth once again provided excellent leadership in continuing the tradition of winning golf at L.H.S.

MALEK'S GIRLS

Kathy Melbourne waiting for the pitch.

Third year coach Dick Malek expected his 1986 Lady Lion softball team to prove very competitive, entering every game with a chance to win. The varsity softball team lived up to this expectation even though they finished the season with a misleading 6-13 record.

The Lady Lions got off to a slow start, but by the end of the season they were giving teams such as Amherst and Longmeadow a run for their money. Since this year's team graduated only two players, co-captains Missy Bator and Amber Hershey, the team looks to be very promising next year. Next year's varsity team will have such talent as Sue Jerz, Chris Parzych, Kathy Melbourne, Chris Andeis, and Nicole Forgie. Congratulations to this year's team on a well played season.

A MATTER OF PRIDE

High hopes characterized the attitude of the 1986 baseball team as the season approached. This was a team that truly believed it would be in the Western Mass. tournament come June. With a team that was composed of 9 seniors, it was easy to see why these Lions believed in themselves.

As the season opened, those high hopes were met by some early success. In the second game of the season, Jeff Garrow contributed to the most exciting Lions victory as he tripled home three runs in the bottom of the seventh inning with two outs. The final score of this hard hitting game was 11-10. This kind of play typified the first half of the season that Jeff had and gained him respect throughout the league.

Over the next three weeks though, the team fell to 3-7 and lost a couple of key players. Perhaps the turning point of the season came when the Lions dropped a 10 inning game to Division I power Northampton. In a typical Lions' high scoring game, the lack of depth in pitching ultimately was a major cause for defeat. Without star lefty Dan Sweeney on the mound, the team just did not have the pitching needed to compete with the rest of the league. The team now realized that their tournament hopes were nearly impossible, and the season was now a matter of pride. The Lions played very respectably over the second half of the season, as Joe Hough caught fire and helped to carry the Lions to a 5-5 second half.

Underclassmen also played a major role in the 1986 season. Sophomore shortstop Dan Casagrande hit an incredible .368. Also, Carl Conui was the speedster who got things started for the team. Coach Kolodziey decided to bring more underclassmen to varsity, as freshman Steve Potorski was given a chance to catch for the team.

"SATISFACTION GUARANTEED!!!"

On the nights of April 18, and 19, 1986, the class of 1986 presented the Senior Show . . . "Satisfaction Guaranteed." Mr. Martin agreed to direct the show one last time. Due to the dedication of Mr. Martin, and the student coordinators, John DeVillez and Chip Harrington, the show was a big success. Both nights were sell-outs. The class of 1986 has a lot of hidden talent which surged forth during the show. There was a great blend of comedy, singing, and dancing. No one will ever forget the "Flying Tortelinis," or the big production number, "The Rangers"!! The show closed with the senior members of concert choir singing "Somewhere."

"DREAMS GO ON FOREVER"

On May 16, 1986, the class of 1987 presented the annual Junior-Senior Prom. This year's coordinators, Brian Dygon and Lynn Evans decided to have the prom at a new location, the Northhampton Hilton. The new hall wasn't the only non-traditional factor of this year's prom. The king and queen of the prom were chosen separately and there was no court. The queen was junior Grace Alves, and the king was senior Jim Cavallo. Their coronation was commenced with the cutting of the prom cake. The music was provided by "Breezin'". The evening flew by and it's guests went home with "dreams" of a very special night.

FINE ARTS

MARCHING LIONS

Once again the 1985-86 Ludlow High School marching band displayed above average marching and instrumental ability during its half-time show, while also boosting the spirits of L.H.S. football fans. These students, under the direction of Mr. Royce Layman and Mr. Dan Carlson put in many hours of practice during the school year. Their season ending Thanksgiving Day performance highlighted the professional attitude these band members displayed all year long.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT

On Tuesday, December 17, the Ludlow High School Music Department staged its annual Christmas Concert. The Brass Ensemble, under the direction of Mr. Daniel Carlson, opened the concert with traditional Christmas carols. The predominately senior concert choir then continued to spread Christmas spirit with old English Christmas carols and other Christmas selections. The chorale once again displayed exceptional vocal ability throughout its contribution to the program. Both the chorale and the concert choir owe their successes to the heartfelt direction of Mr. Gregory Wrinn who gave the singers their love for fine music.

DESIRE

On March 14 and 15 the Drama II class with the help of the Drama I class staged one of Tennessee William's most famous plays, A Streetcar Named Desire. It proved an interesting challenge to our student actors. With the help and under the direction of Mr. Burrage and through their own perseverance these hard working students rose to the challenge. This challenge was met through eight straight weeks of diligent rehearsals culminating at the Berkshire Community College Drama Festival where the drama students took first place in the category of best play. Also, senior Melissa Whitworth, who portrayed Blanche Dubois, won the best actress award at the same festival. This school production proved most rewarding for both the students themselves and the people viewing the play. Special recognition should go to the other three leading roles played by Darlene "Stella" Tower, Paulo "Stanley" Tereso, and Scooter "Mitch" Santos, and the rest of the cast of A Streetcar Named Desire.

SYMPHONY BAND

The Symphony Band held the annual Spring Concert on May 6th at the Paul R. Baird Junior High School auditorium. This year's concert featured diverse selections such as "Alleluia Laudamus Te", "The Sixties", and the "Symphonic Overture". A special treat was given to the audience at this concert. Steven Schiller, principal trumpeter of the Springfield Symphony, performed during this concert. This guest artist performed under a grant from the Arts Lottery Council. The Symphony Band is under the direction of Dr. Royce E. Layman and Daniel J. Carlson. It is because of their hard work and encouragement that the Symphony Band performs with great ability and such enthusiasm.

SPRING CONCERT

The Concert Choir and Chorale put on its annual Spring Choral Music Concert on May 13th at the Paul R. Baird Junior High School auditorium. This was the last time for the twenty-five seniors in Concert Choir to perform with the musical ability they possessed. They were able to show their talent through the wide range of selections they sang. Through their hard work the students in Concert Choir performed with great style. This accomplishment could not have been achieved however without the direction and support of their director, Mr. Gregory Wrinn. The featured selections included peices from the "Chichester Psalms" all the way to the rock opera of "Jesus Christ Superstar".

VOYAGE TO VIRGINIA

Where were you at 1:00 a.m. on April 20, 1986? Many members of the Senior Class were on their way to Virginia for their class trip. The seniors spent four days and three nights in Williamsburg, Va. During their stay, students visited Busch Gardens, Historic Williamsburg, and Jamestown. Chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Cavallo and Mr. and Mrs. Mancuso. Some of the more memorable unplanned events of the trip were Tom Bamford's and Tom Klimek's personal body-guard services for Mrs. Cavallo and no one will ever forget the watergun fight of Williamsburg! Those seniors who went on the trip had a chance to spend time with the class as well as break away from the "usual" Ludlow lifestyle.

CLASS DAY 1986!

On June 4, 1986, the annual Class Day was presented by the Class of 1986. During the assembly, academic, athletic, and music/art awards were given out to members of the graduating class. The Salutatorian speech was presented by Paul Kirkiteles. The State of the School Address was delivered by Luiza Martins. The class poem was read by Diane Frigon. The Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, and Senior class histories were read by various members of the executive board. The class ballot was announced by Kris Erickson and Pamela Zaranek.

REFLECTIONS!

On Monday, June 2, 1986, the class of 1986 held it's Senior Banquet titled "Reflections." The setting was the Willow Glen Inn in East Longmeadow. The evening included complete buffet starting at 6:30. From 8:00 to 12:00, Seniors danced to the music provided by D.J. Tony Molé. The final banquet of the class of 1986 ended with the members of the class exchanging hugs, kisses, and tears of good-bye.

RIVERSIDE!!!

Look out Riverside . . . here comes the class of 1986! On June 3, 1986, the second day of Senior Week 86, the seniors ventured to Riverside Park. Everyone was on their own until 2:00 when they all got together for a private pizza party in the pavilion. At 7:00 p.m. the seniors boarded the buses which took them back to Ludlow.

SENIOR ASSEMBLY XVIII

On June 5, 1986 the class of 1987 paid tribute to the graduating class of 1986. They presented Senior Assembly XVIII under the direction of Mrs. Toni Mancuso. As part of the assembly, class treasurer Patty Skrownek presented the class gift. The faculty chair was given to Mrs. Mancuso. As Mr. Cavallo said; there wasn't "a dry eye in the auditorium" when the seniors delivered their letters to their parents. Senior class President, Michele Manganaro delivered her farewell speech to her classmates. At the end of her speech, she handed down the peacepipe to incoming president Lance Holman. The Hawaiian banner that hung on the peacepipe exemplified the uniqueness of the class of 1986. The Juniors put on a skit called the "Tomorrow Show", which portrayed the class of 1986 "40 years later." To conclude the assembly, the class of 1986 posed on the front steps of the school for the final class picture.

GRADUATION!

On June 6, 1986, the Graduation Ceremony of the Class of 1986 took place at Symphony Hall at 7:00 p.m. The invocation was delivered by Rev. Father Manning. This year there were two valedictorians, Marguerite Wrona and Joseph DePonte. Both students addressed the class. Senior Class President Michele Manganaro gave her Graduation Message. The concert choir closed the ceremony with the traditional singing of "The Lord Bless You and Keep You."

February 1, 1967 - February 22, 1986

What I most remember about Louis is that he would never give up- even if the position was hopeless.

Mr. James Marceau

Louis was a person who was extremely competitive, bright, intelligent, insightful and talented. He was a person who could achieve anything he set himself to. Overall, Louis was a religious person who thanked God for all that he had.
